COMMUNICATE INNOVATE COLLABORATE FACILITATE NEGOTIATE MEDIATE EDUCATE

Zeynep Selcuk is a lawyer, mediator and educator specialising in alternative dispute resolution and negotiation. With 20 years of professional experience in the legal, government, film and not-for-profit sectors Zeynep brings a broad perspective to her work. She has degrees in Law and International Development from UNSW and has studied Management at UTS.

As an associate at Negocio Resolutions Zeynep focuses on managing client relationships, organising mediations and training courses, facilitating processes, conducting research, implementing marketing strategies, and contributing to articles. From 2010-2016 Zeynep worked with international aid and development agency Caritas, with a focus on strategic communication, stakeholder engagement and quality assessment of field implementation.

Zeynep is the Project Manager of Voluntas, a pilot project providing pro bono dispute resolution services in the volunteering, not-for-profit and NGO sectors.

Zeynep is a regular coach and judge at negotiation and mediation competitions, in Australia and Europe. She represented UNSW at the prestigious International Chamber of Commerce Mediation Negotiation Competition in Paris and IBA-VIAC Consensual Dispute Resolution Competition in Vienna.

In her spare time Zeynep is an avid world traveler. She is also passionate about the arts, having worked in the Australian film industry for over a decade. Her work included films such as Mad Max: Fury Road, Star Wars Episodes II and III, and Rabbit Proof Fence.
